

More Things In Heaven: --Coincidence?

Things that I never dreamed possible have been occurring in my life largely as a result of four trips to India where I explored the teachings, practices, and writings of several great spiritual leaders. I have seen miracles and experienced them within my own body for which I have no logical explanation. This book is about them and about the feeling of expansive love that accompanied them. The famous author Eric Fromm once wrote that our lives would be wonderfully enlarged through exploring the wisdom of the Eastern spiritual leaders and I have found this to be true. Agnostics and atheists who had a few inklings about the existence of the realm of spirituality will likely find encouragement here to explore further. In general this book will appeal to people who insist on finding the deepest meaning for their existence based on their own experiences. I'm now 83 years old and I have been meeting with great spiritual leaders mostly from India for over 50 years. My record includes a BA degree from Oberlin College, published poems, published cartoons, appearances in several musicals, selling several paintings, working as a probation officer and helping to raise five wonderful children. I also still love to sing and do ballroom dancing. I now characterize myself as an 83-year-old song and dance man who has had some wonderful spiritual experiences.
